

Press Release: 1 July 2016 - For Immediate Release

PENSACOLA, FL - Barnes and Noble Pensacola is hosting S. Usher Evans, author of the Madion War Trilogy and the Razia series, on Saturday, August 20th from 2-4pm. Barnes and Noble Pensacola is located at 1200 Airport Blvd, Pensacola, FL 32504.

Evans, a Pensacola native and Gulf Breeze High graduate, will be signing copies of The Island and The Chasm available for purchase. She will also give a brief reading of the final book in the trilogy, The Union. Admission is free.

Praise for The Island:

"(A) richly woven tapestry of the Raven & Kylaen worlds set against fast-paced action, forbidden romance, and uncertain outcomes. Looking forward to more!
- Deirdre Riordan Hall, author of Pearl and Sugar

"A brilliant start to a series." - NetGalley reviewer

Praise for The Chasm:

"It was the perfect continuation to this series, full of twists, turns, tension, and intrigue." - Emily, Midwestern Book Nerd Blog

"A stunning sequel." - Anna, Enchanted by YA blog

About S. Usher Evans

S. Usher Evans is an author, blogger, and witty banter aficionado. Born in Pensacola, Florida, she left the sleepy town behind for the fast-paced world of Washington, D.C.. There, she somehow landed jobs with BBC, Discovery Channel, and National Geographic Television before finally settling into a "real job" as an IT consultant. After a quarter life crisis at age 27, she decided consulting was for the birds and rekindled a childhood passion for writing novels.

She sold everything she owned and moved back to Pensacola, where she currently resides with her two dogs, Zoe and Mr. Biscuit.

Evans is the author of the Razia series, Lexie Carrigan Chronicles, Madion War Trilogy, and Empath, published by Sun's Golden Ray Publishing.

About Sun's Golden Ray Publishing

Sun's Golden Ray Publishing, LLC is an independent small press of science fiction and fantasy novels founded in 2014 and based out of Pensacola, FL.
